One Day in the West Bank

A ten-day film-workshop in Jenin.

1. THE IDEA

A ten-day film-workshop will be held in March 2010 in the Cinema Jenin. Ten young Palestinian filmmakers and those wanting to become one will get the chance to make ten short films in cooperation with German filmmakers.

These films will be presented at the opening of the new cinema in Jenin in August 2010. Besides they will be collected on a DVD and broadcasted via internet.

2. THE WORKSHOP

The application is open for anyone between 18 and 30 years from the West Bank or Gaza. You do not need to have any experience in film making, just be interested and have a good idea.

Out of all applicants we will choose ten participants and invite them to Jenin. Lodging and food will be provided; as well as the technical equipment and editing tools.

The hands-on-workshop will include:

- Conceptual work: film script development
- Practical teaching in dealing with camera and sound equipment
- Support of the film shooting
- Practical teaching in editing and post-production

Language:

The workshop will be held in English and Arabic. There will be interpreters so everyone can understand each other.

Your film:

The film could be about your own story or whatever story you want to tell. You can make interviews, an action film, a comedy or tell a love story. You can also choose the style of the film. It could be a documentary, a music video, a
